

I enjoy my XM radio immensely. I am concerned that politicians are trying to impact the programming I receive via XM radio. This is the finest radio broadcasting available, both in content and quality. Please leave XM radio alone. Allow them to improve and grow. Pay more attention to local broadcasters and their constant barrage of deceptive advertising. (i.e. car sales, diet pills and Master Spa advertisements)

Please do not interfere with XM radio.

Sincerely,

Joe Lusky